

Marks Tey Parish Council

Social Media Policy

1. Parish Council use of Social Media – Principles

To use social media and electronic communication to enable Marks Tey Parish Council to interact in a way that improves the communications both within the Parish Council and between the Parish Council and the people, businesses and agencies it works with and serves.

Marks Tey Parish Council Facebook page intends to provide information and updates regarding activities and opportunities within Marks Tey Parish and promote our community positively.

Anyone with concerns regarding content placed on social media sites that denigrate parish councillors, council staff or residents should report them to the Clerk of the Council or the Chair of the Council.

Misuse of social media content that is contrary to this and other policies could result in action being taken.

2. Approved Parish Council Social Media

The Parish Council has approved the use of Facebook and the Parish Council's website to promote the work of the Parish Council and to communicate approved messages by the Chairman/ Vice Chair.

Our website can be found at www.marksteyparish.org.uk

Over time the Parish Council may add to the channels of communication that it uses as it seeks to improve and expand the services it delivers. When these changes occur, this Policy will be updated to reflect the new arrangements.

3. Users of Parish Council Social Media

In accordance with the Council's adopted communications Policy, the Clerk is the council's nominated Press Officer with the authority to issue official press releases once they have been approved by the Chairman or Vice Chairman, these can be placed on social media in addition to traditional communication methods.

4. Guidance for Parish Councillors on the use of Parish Council Social Media

5. Third Party Social Media and Individual Councillor Usage

Councillors and Officers need to think about whether they are acting in a private capacity, or whether any impression might be conveyed that they are acting for and on behalf of Marks Tey Parish council.

The council has adopted a code of conduct which is binding to all members. If you use Social media in your official capacity as a Councillor or Officer, you should always be mindful of the Code, and the seven Nolan principles applicable to holding public office- Selflessness, Integrity, Objectivity, Accountability, Openness, Honestly and Leadership.

Do:

- Set appropriate privacy setting for any blog or networking site,
- Watch out for defamatory or obscene posts from others on any blog or page and remove them as soon as possible to avoid any perception that you condone such views
- Be aware that the higher your profile as a Councillor, the more likely it is that you may be seen as acting in an official capacity when you blog or network.
- Avoid publishing information that you could only have accessed in your position as a Councillor or Officer
- avoid being specific or personal about individuals

Don't:

- Think before you post.
- Post comments that you would not be prepared to make in writing or face to face contact,
- Use the Parish Council facilities for personal or political purposes
